

International Forum of Endocrinology, Diabetology & Metabolic Disorders

Chairman:
Andrzej Milewicz, MD, PhD

Cracow, 25-27 November 2010

Contact Organizing Committee:

Symposion Sp z o.o., 229 Obornicka St, 60-650 Poznań, Poland
Phone: +48 61 662 81 77, Fax: +48 61 662 81 71
milewicz@endo.am.wroc.pl, katarzyna.daleszyska@symposion.pl
www.symposion.pl

On behalf of twenty one Scientific Societies which works on endocrinology issues we have a great pleasure to invite you to participate in International Forum of Endocrinology, Diabetology and Metabolic Disorders. The main goal of the conference is to integrate all Scientific Committees and to present the newest researches and scientific achievements from the daily endocrinological practices. Twenty one scientific High Light Sessions will be held under the patronage of twenty one Scientific Societies which are listed below.

1. European Neuroendocrine Association
2. European Neuroendocrine Tumors Society
3. European Menopause and Andropause Society
4. Interdisciplinary Forum for Osteoporosis
5. International Menopause and Andropause Society
6. International Gynecological Endocrinology Society
7. Czech Endocrine Society
8. Slovak Endocrine Society
9. Polish Endocrine Society
10. Polish Thyroid Society
11. Polish Gynecology Society
12. Polish Menopause and Andropause Society
13. Polish Neuroendocrine Tumor Society
14. Polish Nuclear Medicine Society
15. Polish Pediatric Endocrinology Society
16. Polish Society for Obesity Study
17. Polish Neuroendocrine Society
18. Polish Cardiometabolic Society
19. Polish Family Medicine Society
20. Polish Sexology Society
21. Polish Cardiac Society

I. Europa Lecture – Professor Vera Popovic (Serbia, member of ESE)

II. Forum for President's of the Endocrine Societies from Middle Europe:

President of Czech Endocrine Society, President of Slovak Endocrine Society, President of Hungarian Endocrine Society, President of Latvian Endocrine Society, President of Lithuanian Endocrine Society, President of Estonian Endocrine Society, President of Romanian Endocrine Society, President of Slovenian Endocrine Society, President of Ukraine Endocrine Society, President of Georgian Endocrine Society

III. Poster Sessions – “From basic science to clinical endocrinology” – each day three the best posters will get prize from the Board of Polish Endocrine Association – 1 000 PLN (for all participants)

IV. Scientific Committee will also award three the best publications in “Polish Endocrinology” Magazine - during last two years, from 2008 – 2010 (for Polish Endocrinologists only):

- First Prize 4 000 PLN
- Second Prize 3 000 PLN
- Third Prize 2 000 PLN
- And three prizes for three publications which got the highest IF in 2008-2010 (each prize is 3 000 PLN)

V. Registration

Online registration is available: www.symposion.pl/ European Forum of Endocrinology, Diabetology & Metabolic Disorders (from 1st September 2009). For young endocrinologists (below 30) we offer a special packet, which includes entry to all official conference sessions, the Opening Ceremony, conference materials and 3 days B&B accommodation (9/10, 10/11, 11/12 September). Number of packets is limited! One packet costs 300 Euros. Fee for other Participants costs 200 Euros and includes: entry to all official conference sessions, the Opening Ceremony, conference materials.

You are all very welcome to active participation in this conference and presenting your publications. However official language of conference is English but some sessions will be in Polish. After Conference all participants will get a certificate which are honoured by educational points.

We hope to see you all in Cracow.

President of Polish Endocrine Association
Andrzej Milewicz MD, PhD